'WRITE' Approach Programme

'WRITE' Approach Programme :

The 'WRITE APPROACH' is a guided answer-writing initiative designed for aspirants who are self-driven yet seek structured practice and expert-designed questions. It ensures discipline, exposure to UPSC-standard questions, and systematic evaluation while giving aspirants the flexibility to grow into independent writers.

Mains Answer Writing Guidance

Frequency and Duration :

- 3 Answer Writing Sessions every week.
- Runs until the end of January, providing ~60 practice days.

Practice Volume :

- 4 to 5 questions per session, totalling 250+ questions.
- Blend of syllabus keyword based questions and PYQs (2016 – 2024).

Test and Feedback Cycle :

- Tests follow a fixed calendar released in advance.
- Model Answers shared the next day for comparison.
- Evaluation within 72 hours, with written comments on structure, content, and presentation.
- Group feedback sessions conducted after every cycle to discuss recurring issues and improvements.

Question Design :

- Strict alignment with UPSC's PYQ pattern (2016 – 2024).
- Coverage of static themes like federalism, poverty, agriculture, ethics.
- Integration of current affairs from 2019 – 2025.

Who Should Join 'WRITE' Approach ?

- Aspirants comfortable with self study but seeking structured guidance.
- Those who want expert designed practice questions without intensive one-to-one mentoring.
- Serious candidates looking to Test discipline, Writing stamina and Exam readiness in a guided yet independent format.

'WRITE' Approach features till 31st January 2026

- Structured Completion of Subjects: Discipline through fixed test calendar.
- Notes and Revision Support: Model answers double up as crisp notes.
- Emphasis on Practice: Over 250 answers written under exam like conditions.
- Self Tracking Tools: Improvement sheets for accountability.
- Guided Feedback: Written evaluation + group feedback to highlight recurring patterns.

Frequently Asked Questions (FAQs)

Q. What is the WRITE APPROACH Programme ?

A. It is a guided UPSC answer-writing initiative combining structured practice, 250+ questions, timely evaluation, and group sessions. The programme helps aspirants write faster, better, and exam-ready answers with consistent discipline and direction.

Q. How is WRITE APPROACH different from the Bodh Mentorship Programme ?

A. Bodh offers 24/7 personalised, one-to-one mentorship, while WRITE APPROACH focuses on structure, calendar-driven practice, group feedback, and self-tracking.

Q. Who should join WRITE APPROACH ?

A. It is best for aspirants confident in self-study but seeking structured practice, exam-quality questions, and mentor-led evaluations. Ideal for those wanting discipline, consistency, and improved answer-writing without full-time, one-to-one mentorship.

Q. What does the programme include ?

A. The programme covers 60 structured tests, over 250 UPSC-level questions, written comments, group reviews, and progress-tracking tools. It ensures balanced coverage of static topics and current affairs with simulated exam-like conditions for aspirants.

Q. How many answers will I write in this programme ?

A. Aspirants attempt 4–5 UPSC-level questions per session, resulting in 250+ answers before January. This structured volume of writing builds stamina, time management, and exam-like confidence essential for Mains success.

Q. What is the test structure ?

A. The programme simulates UPSC conditions with 60 tests — 15 each for GS I, II, III, and IV. Coverage spans history, polity, economy, ethics, and current affairs between 2019–2025.

Q. What kind of feedback can I expect ?

A. Evaluation is by a mentor with 7 years of UPSC experience and two interview qualifications. Feedback focuses on depth, structure, presentation, and value addition — practical, specific, and not generic comments.

Frequently Asked Questions (FAQs)

Q. How long does the programme run ?

A. It runs for 17 weeks with a fixed calendar covering the full Mains syllabus. The schedule ensures disciplined progression, continuous writing practice, and complete syllabus integration well before January deadlines.

Q. Does this programme help with time management ?

A. Yes. By simulating exam-like conditions, WRITE APPROACH sharpens writing stamina, consistency, and speed. The structured calendar builds time management skills essential for completing 20-question UPSC papers within the strict three-hour limit.

Q. Why should I choose WRITE APPROACH over self-practice ?

A. Unlike self-practice, WRITE APPROACH enforces discipline through a calendar, authentic UPSC questions, expert evaluation, and group learning. It reduces stagnation, improves presentation, and provides exam-ready preparation with structured consistency and guided direction.
